

Pedro A. Regalado

Department of History, Stanford University
pedror@stanford.edu

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Assistant Professor of History, Stanford University, 2022–present

Junior Fellow, Society of Fellows, Harvard University, 2019–2022

EDUCATION

Ph.D., American Studies, Yale University, 2019

Dissertation: “Where Angels Fear to Tread: Latinx Work and the Making of Postindustrial New York.”

- Winner, 2020 Michael Katz Award for Best Dissertation, Urban History Association
- Finalist, 2019 Ralph Henry Gabriel Prize for Best Dissertation, American Studies Association

M.A., American Studies, Yale University, 2016

B.A., History, magna cum laude, Loyola University Chicago, 2013

A.A. in Secondary Education/History, Community College of Philadelphia, 2011

PUBLICATIONS

Book Manuscript

Nueva York: Making an American City (in progress).

Articles

“Latinx Business and Entrepreneurship,” Oxford Research Encyclopedia in American History, Oxford University Press, September 2020.

“The Washington Heights Uprising of 1992: Dominican Belonging and Urban Policing in New York City,” The Journal of Urban History, Online First, December 28, 2018.

Book Chapters

“‘We Must Have a Voice’: Latinx Uprisings and the Urban Revolution,” in Metropolitan Latinx Histories edited by A.K. Sandoval-Strausz, University of Chicago Press (in progress).

“‘They Speak Our Language...Business’: Latinx Businesspeople and the Pursuit of Wealth in New York City” in Histories of Racial Capitalism, eds. Destin Jenkins and Justin Leroy, Columbia University Press, February 2021.

“Pa’lante!': The Long History of Puerto Rican Activism in New York City” in AOC: The Fearless Rise and Powerful Resonance of Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, ed. Lynda Lopez, Saint Martin’s Press, August 2020.

Review Essays

“Reassessing American ‘Ruin,’” Review of Pete L’Official, Urban Legends: The South Bronx in Representation and Ruin in Gotham: A Blog for Scholars of New York City History, September 2020.

“Forging Pittsburgh: The Varied Evolution of Steel City,” Review of Kenneth J. Kobus, City of Steel: How Pittsburgh Became the World’s Steelmaking Capital during the Carnegie Era and Allen Dieterich-Ward, Beyond Rust: Metropolitan Pittsburgh and the Fate of Industrial America in Ohio Valley History, Vol. 18, Num. 2, Summer 2018.

Other Writings

“Storefront Archives: Looking Back with Justo Marti” Platform, April 13, 2020.
Reprinted in Urban Omnibus, May 20, 2020.

“The Rudy Giuliani of today is just the same old Rudy,” The Washington Post, October 19, 2019.
Reprinted in The Independent, October 23, 2019.
Reprinted in Newsday, October 23, 2019.

“Homes for Citizens,” co-authored with Salonee Bhaman, Boston Review, August 26, 2019.

“What the narrative about Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez gets wrong,” The Washington Post, November 14, 2018.

“Urban Uprisings, 1960s-1970s” in 50 Events That Shaped Latino History: an Encyclopedia of the American Mosaic, ed. Lilia Fernández, ABL-CLIO Press, March 2018.

“Latina/o Entrepreneurship is Not the Solution to Poverty,” Public Seminar, January 27, 2017.

“Want Students with Drive and Grit? Look in Community Colleges,” The Chronicle Review, Vol. 62. Issue 36, May 15, 2016.

“Fair Housing,” Encyclopedia of Greater Philadelphia, November 2014.

SELECT AWARDS & FELLOWSHIPS

○ Winner of 2020 Michael Katz Award for Best Dissertation, Urban History Association.

○ Finalist for 2019 Ralph Gabriel Henry Prize for Best Dissertation, American Studies Association.

Jefferson Scholars National Fellowship (one year), University of Virginia, 2018.

MacMillan International Dissertation Research Fellowship, Yale University, 2018.

○ Winner of 2017 Best Student Research Paper on Planning History, 17th National Conference on Planning History.

Dean's Emerging Scholars Research Award, Yale University, 2017.

The Workshop on Political Economy, The Hoover Institution, Stanford University, July 2017.

Institution for Social and Policy Studies (ISPS), Policy Fellows Program, Yale University, 2016.

Center for the Study of Race, Indigeneity, and Transnational Migration Fellowship, Yale University, 2016.

Summer Institute on Inequality Pre-Dissertation Fellowship, Social Science and Policy Forum, University of Pennsylvania, August 2015.

○ Regent’s Award (for leadership and service to the university), Loyola University Chicago, 2014.

- First Place in Loyola University Chicago History Department Essay Contest, 2014.
Ronald E. McNair Postbaccalaureate Achievement Program Summer Research Fellowship, Loyola University Chicago, 2013.

TEACHING

Teaching Fellow, Yale University

- “Introduction to Ethnicity, Race, and Migration” (Spring 2018).
- “New Haven and the American City: Planning, Building, and Design” (Fall 2017).
- “Introduction to Latinx Studies” (Spring 2017).
- “Race, Class, and Gender in American Cities” (Fall 2016).

Invited Lectures & Discussions

- “Latinx Entrepreneurs and Urban Revitalization in 1970s New York,” Professor Laura Barraclough, “Race, Class, and Gender in American Cities,” Yale University, 2021.
- “Illicit Work, Migration, and Drug Capitalism,” short lecture and discussion for Dr. Devin McGeehan Muchmore course, “Shadow Economies in US History,” Harvard University, November 2020.
- “Drug Capitalism and Housing,” short lecture and discussion for Professor Destin Jenkins course, “The Informal—Economic, Politics, and Social Ties in the City,” University of Chicago, May 2020.
- “New Latinx Migrations & Dominican Activism in 1990s,” Professor Allyson Brantley course, “Introduction to Latinx Histories,” University of La Verne, May 2019.
- “Political-Religious Struggle Against U.S. Occupations,” short lecture and discussion for Professor Dixia Ramirez course, “Travel Literature of the Americas,” Yale University, March 2017.

CONFERENCE PANELS

- “Latinx Essential Workers: Postwar to the Present,” roundtable participant, OAH Conference on American History, Boston, Massachusetts, March 2022, Endorsed by the Immigration and Ethnic History Society (IEHS), Labor and Working-Class History Association (LAWCHA), and Western History Association.
- “Confronting ‘Blue-Collar Blight’: Urban Renewal and Latinx Business Tenants in Postwar New York,” OAH Conference on American History, April 2021 (pre-recorded).
- “‘They Speak our Language...Business’: Latinx Banking in New York City, 1961-1986,” Urban History Association Biennial Conference, Columbia, South Carolina, October 2018.
- “Boom and Bust: Latinx Manufacturing Labor in ‘Postindustrial’ New York,” Urban History Association Biennial Conference, Columbia, South Carolina, October 2018.
- “Fixed Capital: Building Transition and Drug Capitalism in New York City, 1961-1997,” 17th National Conference on Planning History, Cleveland, Ohio, September 2017.

“Where Angels Fear to Tread: Latinx Business in Postindustrial New York,” Urban History Association, Biennial Conference, Chicago, Illinois, October 2016.

“Bodegas y Colmados: Dominican Vernacular Space Across Borders,” Race, Ethnicity, and Migration: An Interdisciplinary Graduate Student Conference, Columbia University, November 2016.

PUBLIC & OTHER EVENTS

“Battle Against the Neighborhood: Latinx New Yorkers and Urban Redevelopment, 1937-1964,” Digital Seminar, Cambridge American History Seminar, Cambridge University, November 2021.

“Work and the Built Environment in Latinx Gotham,” NYU Cities Collaborative Race, Capital, and the City, October 2021.

“Latinx New York: Work and the Origins of the Modern City,” Chicago History Museum Urban History Seminar Lecture, April 2021.

“Translating Blackness: The Vaivenes and Migrations of Black Latinidad,” moderator for lecture by Professor Lorgia García Peña, La Casa Cultural, Yale University, February 2021.

“Latinx Businesspeople and the Pursuit of Wealth in New York City,” Temple University Urban History Workshop, October 16, 2020.

“Fixed Capital: Building Transition and Drug Capitalism during New York’s ‘Urban Crisis,’” The Newberry Seminar on the History of Capitalism, The Newberry Library, February 2020.

“What Drives You?” Keynote address for Hispanic Heritage Month, Community College of Philadelphia, October 2019.

“Dominicans in Philadelphia: A History,” Keynote address at Dominican Day Flag Raising, City Hall, Philadelphia, February 2019.

“Unbroken Windows,” protagonist, short film by Hito Steyerl, featured in Drill, Park Avenue Armory, New York City, June-July 2018.

“Postindustrial Latinidad: The Camden Riots of 1971 and Latinx Belonging the Postindustrial Era,” Mellon Initiative in Architecture, Urbanism & the Humanities Seminar Series, Princeton University, March 2016.

“End of Days: The ‘Puerto Rican Riots’ of 1971,” featured in The Newark Public Library exhibit Newark '74: Remembering the Puerto Rican Riots - An Unexamined History, 2013.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS & SERVICE

Organization of American Historians

American Historical Association

Urban History Association

Board of Directors 2022-2025

Society of American City and Regional Planning History

2021 Catherine Bauer Wurster Prize Committee

2019 Conference Program Committee

Ronald E. McNair Post-Baccalaureate Scholars Program